

Tanzania-Network.de e.V.

Presseschau

Juni 2018

Tansania

- 03.06 Wild Life College in Afrika: „Im Grund studieren wir Safari“, Miriam Olbrisch, Spiegel Online
- 07.06 Tanzanian prosecutors charge two telecom chiefs executives, 4 others with fraud, Eric Oteng, africanews.
- 11.06 Tanzania orders all unregistered bloggers to shut down their sites, africanews.
- 15.06 Umwelt: Tansania will Wasserkraftwerk in UNESCO-Weltkulturerbe bauen, Hamburger Abendblatt
- 16.06 Appalling conditions for Burundi and Congolese Refugees in Tanzania, Prosper Kwigize, Detusche Welle
- 22.06 Joseph Mbilinyi takes Tanzania to court over rap song ban, BBC News
- 22.06 World Bank approves $455 million loan for Tanzania power projects, africanews.
- 23.06 East African Court of Justice rules Tanzania newspaper ban illegal, Eric Oteng, africanews.
- 25.06 „It started as a hype“ Chinese spreads fast in Africa as language of success, Claire van den Heever, African Arguments
- 25.06 Fünf neue Nationalparks in Tansania, travelnews.ch
- 29.06 The deadly bite of mosquitoes, Julia Gross, Deutsche Welle

Afrika

- 05.06 Trump against Rwanda in trade war over used clothes, Sarah Steffen, Deutsche Welle
- 07.06 #MeeToo, Africa and the politics of transnational activism, Titilope F. Ajayi, Africa is a Country
- 14.06 Im Norden Mosambiks terrorisieren Islamisten die Bevölkerung: Der Jihad aus dem Norden, Kevin Zdiara, Jungle World
- 18.06 Afrika und Mittlerer Osten: Kampf gegen homophobe Propaganda im Netz, Annika Schneider, Deutsche Welle
- 20.06 Afrika: Der afrikanische Fluch, Bastian Berbner, Malte Henk, Wolfgang Uchatius, Zeit Online

21.06 Mozambican government downplays wave of attacks, Antonio Cascais, Deutsche Welle

Entwicklungspolitik

05.06 Deutschlands koloniale Vergangenheit: Zaghafte Aufarbeitung nach langer Amnesie, Christiane Habermalz, Deutschlandfunk

28.06 Keynote Speach Video Replay: Activists // Academia: Visions and Challenges for Black German Studies, Noah Sow, noahsow.de